

Goodness of Wit Test #10: Once Is Enough (CHANCE Vol. 23, No. 4) by WITZ (Jonathan Berkowitz)

Instructions: Eight clue answers must be altered in a similar way to fit into the grid. These answers, which are all proper names with something shared, are clued by wordplay only and do not have a definition. The rest of the answer words are clued and entered normally. Enumerations are withheld.

Across

- 1 Bench female baseball player
- 5 Slow moving Gore trails revolutionary guard
- 10 Examine portfolio
- 11 Married to help servant
- 13 Foot problem before marriage
- 14 Exit retreat leaderless
- 15 Unlimited places to store sword handle
- 16 Auditor's weak pretense
- 18 Very old drawer is dirtier

- 19 Catches parents ill-prepared
- 20 Had a row with liquid the French poured into missile
- 26 Bite peeled melon fruit
- 28 Suspicious LSD guru in the audience
- 29 Brat loses time slip
- 30 Donating French wine packing job
- 32 Nice fish
- 33 Tennis player part of Star Trek collective
- 34 Couple owed last of rent
- 35 Lively ancient city prior to start of big trouble
- 36 Flimsy argument labels Southern Europe's leaders treacherous

Down

- 1 French master failing in standard English
- 2 Execute core of change
- 3 Drunken priest's vivacious wit
- 4 Stage last tale
- 5 Good article on middle of recession in America
- 6 Kid grabs half a candy decoration
- 7 Clear Tut's head after plague
- 8 Prove a BA might be better than average (2 words)
- 9 Nile swirling over Royal Society ships
- 11 Narrator follows prophet without introduction
- 12 Musicians' patron saint lacking two eyelashes
- 15 Show limitless narration
- 17 Creoles crazy about a vegetable
- 20 Heartless controlled rulers rise and come forward (2 words)
- 21 Strip part of ship during day lost at sea
- 22 Ms. Woods or Ms. Dashwood
- 23 State answer, recite prayers in retrospect
- 24 You and I initially ignore edict
- 25 Suzy got excited holding pair of gametes
- 27 Go south to prepare
- 30 Crow flying up dress
- 31 Votes against bills not true

